The display is good for the price, color is not it if you're expecting nice color quality. The touchscreen is very smooth and the fold is very nice with 1 motion if you can carry 10 lbs no problem with your shoulders. The speakers are also should not be the main focus either but theres a headphone jack port with an HDMI.

I absolutely love this machine. It's very solidly built, the screen is large and has excellent image quality, and the keyboard is sturdy and responsive. The only negative I have is that the screen shakes a little when I type, but if you flip it over and use an external keyboard, then there are no issues whatsoever (pic included). I don't use it to run games except ...

Overall this computer is absolutely AMAZING. It has a 2 in 1 design, it's touchscreen, it has a numeric keypad, usb ports, and a backlit keyboard. The only thing that I didn't like about this computer is that it is not compatible with The Sims 4 or any EA games. I got this computer for two reasons: 1.) to be able to get my work done and 2.) to play The Sims ...
